Johnson Authors Chapter in New Publication

January 5, 2009 — Columbus, OH – Leslie S. Johnson, a Partner in the Columbus office of Hahn Loeser & Parks LLP, recently authored a chapter in a new publication from Aspatore Books called, "Inside the Minds: Immigration Strategies for Companies." This was announced by Stephen E. Chapplear, Managing Partner of the Firm's Columbus office.

Ms. Johnson focuses her practice in the business area and one of her specialties is immigration law. Her experience includes: business and work visas (extraordinary aliens, outstanding researchers and professors, specialty occupation individuals, intra-company transferees and investors); as well as corporate formation and dissolution; general business advice; corporate governance; asset protection; mergers and acquisitions; joint ventures; business reorganization; asset purchase; buy/sell agreements; stock purchase and stock restriction agreements; capital formation and buyouts; acquisition and disposition of corporate assets; close corporation agreements; shareholder disputes; foreign registration; succession planning; representation of non-profit organizations.

Law & Politics magazine named Ms. Johnson one of its "Ohio Rising Stars." She earned her J.D. from Capital University Law School and her B.A. from The Ohio State University.
